Blue and green wires are earths which carry the current to earth through the switch. This high current through the switch is what causes them to die. Red wire indicates power which goes to common pin of headlight.

Original wiring in Australian 1971 240z

Modified wiring in Australian 1971 240z